

No More “Going off the Rails”

Industrial

Situation

In the customer’s industrial process, a static charge was preventing the poly film roll from laying flat in their equipment, leading to quality control problems and slow production.

Solution

We added an anti-static treatment to their film to correct the problem.

Results

1. That did the trick! They only wished they had told us sooner!

Services

- Sheet film

281-351-1726

Contact Houston Poly to get started on your next project or learn more about our capabilities at HoustonPoly.com